OTTENHEIM.

Hugh Spratt is touching up Pine Grove church with a nice coat of paint. Up till this writing Joe Coleman has not unearthed that pot of gold he has been digging after, mention of which was made in our last letter.

M. Mullins, who is teaching school at Sugar Grove, and lives half a mile below Ottenheim, has a walk of 4 1/2 miles night and morning, which makes a distance of over 100 miles during his session of school.

J. F. Shaw and wife, of Preachersville, were in this section Sunday with relatives. Mrs. Margaret Griffin and Miss Maggie James, both daughters of Ephraim James, are very low with consumption. Andrew Johnson, who has been making Oklahoma his home for the last four years, is visiting the homefolks.

The Sunday school pupils at Pine Grove church gave a treat Sunday evening of a variety of good things, such as cake, candy, bananas, lemonade, etc. It will be a day long to be remembered by the little children, who ate to their heart's content of the dainties prepared for them. About 100 people partook of the feast.

"Will You Love Me When I'm Old."

I would ask of you, my darling,
A question soft and low,
That gives me many a heartache
As the months come and go.
Your love I know is truthful,
Yet the truest love grows cold;
It is this that I would ask you:
Will you love me when I'm old?
Down the stream of life together
We are sailing side by side,
Hoping some bright day to anchor
Soft beyond the surging tide.
To-day our sky is cloudless,
But the night may clouds unfold;
And its storms may gather round us,
Will you love me when I'm old?
When my hair shall be like snowdrifts
And mine eyes shall dimmer grow,
I would lean upon some loved one
In the valley as I go.
I would claim of you a promise,
Worth to me a world of gold,
It is only this, my darling:
That you'll love me when I'm old.
Contributed.

Don't Be Imposed Upon.

Foley & Co., Chicago, originated Honey and Tar as a throat and lung remedy, and on account of the great merit and popularity of Foley's Honey and Tar many imitations are offered for the genuine. These worthless imitations have similar sounding names. Beware of them. The genuine Foley's Honey and Tar is in a yellow package. Ask for it and refuse any substitute. It is the best remedy for coughs and colds. Penny's Drug Store.

A man who is fond of working out statistics and astronomical calculations, figures that the cotton factories of Lancashire, England, at present spin about 155,000,000 miles of thread a day, so that in six seconds they can make enough to go around the earth. In one month they can spin enough to reach from here to the moon. The product of 18 days would reach from the sun to Neptune. Counting 310 working days in the year, it would take them, at this rate, 500 years to spin enough thread to reach the nearest star.

Mystery Deepens.

Mystery deepens as to why so many millions persist in suffering from such fearful indigestion as dyspepsia, constipation, etc., when they could so easily get rid of every one of their troubles by a few doses of Dr. Caldwell's (laxative) Syrup Pepsin. Have you tried it? If not, do so today. Sold by G. L. Penny, Stanford, and C. W. Adams, Hustonville, at 50c and $1.00. Money back if fails.

No break has appeared in the Russian strike, and the situation is more acute than ever. It is believed that Czar Nicholas will formally yield and give Count Witte full powers. Gen. Trepoff has become his ally. There are 90,000 troops in Petersburg and 200,000 idle men.

Insomnia and Indigestion Cured.

"Last year I had a very severe attack of indigestion. I could not sleep at night and suffered most excruciating pains for three hours after each meal. I was troubled this way for about three months when I used Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and received immediate relief," says John Dixon, Tullamore, Ontario, Canada. For sale by all druggists.

"Pa, what's a bank examiner?"
"A bank examiner? Oh, he's the man who goes around and examines the bank after the cashier has looted it."

Orleans Lee, aged 84, was killed by a train near Shepherdsville.

MATRIMONIAL.

Gustav Jentsch and Miss Sophia Balmer will be married to-day.

Robert Harris and Miss Julia Winter, each 16, were married at Columbus, Ind.

It is said that Mme. Lillian Nordica, the prima donna, is to be married to an Idaho millionaire mine owner.

Mr. Will W. White, a prosperous farmer of the Moreland section, will be married to-morrow to Miss Sallie Christman, a splendid young lady of the West End.

Mr. Hartwell Pickett, well-known and well-liked here, was married in Louisville to Miss Lizzie Hoke, of Spencer county. Mr. Pickett is a brother of Mrs. Will Severance, of this place, and is a prominent young farmer of Shelby. They will reside in Spencer.

Mr. William Wheritt and wife, of Lancaster, will celebrate their golden wedding Wednesday, Nov. 1. This occasion will not only be the 50th anniversary of Mr. Wheritt's wedding, but the 80th anniversary of his birth as well. He comes of a long lived family.

Mr. and Mrs. William Warren, of Boyle, announce the engagement of their daughter, Jean Hamilton Davies Warren, to Mr. John J. Hutchison, of Lexington. The marriage will be celebrated some time in January at Mr. and Mrs. Warren's country home, Warrenwood, near Danville. Miss Warren is an exceedingly handsome and lovable young woman, highly accomplished and very popular. Mr. Hutchison is a prominent young business man of the Blue Grass capital.

The marriage of Miss Elizabeth Alexander Moores and Mr. Arthur F. Barnett was solemnized Oct. 25th at Seelbach's Hotel, Louisville. Dr. E. L. Powell, pastor of the First Christian church, officiating. Miss Moores is the eldest daughter of C. C. Moores, the well-known lumberman of Shelbyville, and is a charming young woman. She is a social favorite in her home town and her graciousness has made her a welcome guest in many Stanford homes. Mr. Barnett is a son of the late G. B. Barnett, and is one of Lincoln county's most prosperous young business men. Immediately after luncheon, which was served at the residence of Mrs. F. P. Eddleman, the bride's sister, the happy couple left for home. A FRIEND.

We heartily agree with the Danville Advocate when it says: "That a law should be in force whereby a minister is entitled to a certain amount for performing the holy rites of matrimony, was forcibly illustrated yesterday when a young Harrodsburg couple was married in this city by one of the leading ministers. The clergyman was put to considerable trouble in being taken away from his study for the Sunday services to perform the ceremony, and when the task was finished the groom in a manly way took him by the hand and with his face all aglow with happiness, said: 'Brother, I certainly do appreciate what you have done for me.' The minister looked somewhat pleased, but was unable to say a word and the groom with his new bride walked out the front door, while the clergyman was left to think about the fat fee he didn't get."

Wednesday last as the clock struck the hour of noon at the residence of Mr. B. P. Shewmaker at Moreland, in the presence of 25 relatives and friends, Miss Delia H. Coffey and Mr. Madison Engleman were joined in the holy bonds of matrimony. Rev. W. G. Montgomery officiating. The bride is the orphan daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Coffey, both parents dying when she was quite young. She made her home with her aunt and cousin, Mrs. E. K. Shewmaker and son, and we will leave it to the friends who know her to say what a lucky prize Matt has drawn. Mr. Engleman is a son of the late Samuel Engleman, of Shelby City, having been in the general merchandise business at that place for several years until lately, when he accepted a traveling position with the Forward Shoe Co., of Cincinnati, O. Immediately after the ceremony the guests were invited to the dining room, where a bountiful repast had been prepared and although the rain was coming down in torrents the happy little crowd was merry until late in the afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Engleman received several handsome and costly presents. They left Moreland on the evening train for Paducah, where they will visit the family of Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Logan, who are relatives of the bride. After a few weeks' visit they will return to Moreland and board with B. P. Shewmaker and family for the present. The many friends of the happy couple wish them a long, useful and happy life.

Plans have been accepted by the Lincoln Savings Bank for the erection of a 12-story building at Fourth avenue and Market street, Louisville, to be completed within 18 months.

The Federal fever fighters in New Orleans regard the victory as practically won.

Thomas W. Lawson has sued Horace J. Stevens, of Hancock, Mich., for $20,000 damages, alleging that his reputation has been damaged to this extent by reason of libelous statements made by the defendant.

A verdict for $10,000 was returned in the Shelby circuit court against Ginn & Co., of Chicago, in the suit brought by R. A. Burton, county school superintendent, for alleged breach of contract in the sale of school books.

Mrs. Roy McKinney was elected president of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, over Mrs. James P. Tarvin, of Covington, and Miss Cady Froman, of Ghent. Mrs. Basil W. Duke was elected honorary president for life.

The suitcase mystery of Boston harbor of Sept. 21, when the torso of a woman was found, was revived by the finding of another suitcase containing the arms and legs of a woman supposed to be the missing members of the torso.

Definite steps were taken at St. Louis for inaugurating the operative plans of the United States Independent Telephone Co. It was decided to have two equipment plants, one at Rochester and one at St. Louis, each with a capital of $6,000,000.

The old St. Charles saloon at Maysville, known from Pittsburgh to New Orleans, and incidentally the only saloon in that section of the State where a court had convened, is to pass out of existence, a reading and reception room taking its place.

Strenuous opponents of race suicide are Mr. and Mrs. Fred Heise, of Owosso, Mich., whose 20th child is just born. All the score of youngsters, from Fred, Jr., who is 21, and the oldest, down to the last little girl, who has just opened her eyes to the world, are healthy and happy.

While temporarily deranged as the result of a severe nervous attack of several days, Maj. Marmaduke B. Bowden shot himself in his room at the Willard Hotel, Louisville. The bullet passed through the left breast, missing the heart by a narrow margin. It is believed that he will recover.

FREE IF IT FAILS.

Penny's Drug Store say They Do Not Charge Anything For Vinol Unless It Gives Satisfactory Results.

When asked by a reporter of the JOURNAL how he could make such a broad offer in regard to any medicine, Mr. Penny, of Penny's Drug Store, replied:

"If Vinol were a patent or secret preparation it would be another thing, but it is not, everything it contains is named on the label.

Vinol is simply the up-to-date form of administering cod liver oil, which for centuries has been recognized as the grandest of all body building agents for wasted human strength and vitality, and during the last five years we have seen it produce such grand results that we are now willing to back it with any kind of a guarantee.

In Vinol we have simply done away with the useless, system-clogging oil and have given to the people all the medicinal, body-building elements of cod liver oil in a highly concentrated and deliciously palatable form, and we have never sold in our store a medicine of more curative and strength-creating value than Vinol, and if the people of Stanford only realized its value we would not have clerks enough in our store to supply the demand for it. In a natural manner Vinol tones up the digestive organs, makes rich, red blood and creates strength. We can only ask the people of Stanford to try it on our guarantee. Penny's Drug Store.

A. Hunn and Robert Hudson, of Columbia, are here with 25 good cotton and sugar mules sold to Fox & Bright at Danville. Uriah Dunn left Sunday for Barnwell, S. C., where he expects to be busy in the horse and mule trade for the next five months.

Miss Ida Twidwell, beloved daughter of Mrs. John S. Johnson, died of heart failure at the home of her sister, Mrs. Lizzie Forgy, at Elkton on Friday. After a most impressive service at the grave by Dr. Green, of Danville, the remains were laid to rest on the family lot in the cemetery here Sunday afternoon.

Trade with our merchants is better than for several years and their large stock is being augmented daily, keeping pace with the increased demands and with up-to-date goods. November is again with us and with it comes the sad recollection of our baptism of fire that swept nearly the entire business portion of our city, and which was believed to be a calamity, but was a blessing in disguise.

Ed C. Hopper and daughter, Miss Melle, leave Saturday for a six months' sojourn on the Pacific slope. Miss Julia Stagg and J. G. Weatherford spent last week in Cincinnati buying goods for their greatly increased trade. Unusually interesting among their many lines replenished and purchased is an exceedingly large and varied stock of Christmas goods. Miss Amanda Stone and George D. Weatherford accompanied them to the Queen City.

The city council, of Somerset, passed an ordinance ordering an election to be held Jan. 21, 1906, for the purpose of taking the vote on the Carnegie Library matter. Mr. Carnegie has offered to give $15,000 for the establishment of a free library in Somerset, provided the town will donate $1,500 per annum for the sustenance thereof. The town has agreed to pay one-half of this and the educational board the other half.

Doctors said He would not Live.

Peter Fry, Woodruff, Pa., writes: "After doctoring for two years with the best physicians in Waynesburg, and still getting worse, the doctors advised me if I had any business to attend to I had better attend to it at once, as I could not possibly live another month as there was no cure for me. Foley's Kidney Cure was recommended to me by a friend, and I immediately sent my son to the store for it, and after taking three bottles I began to get better and continued to improve until I was entirely well." Penny's Drug Store.

H. Crumpler, of Tampa, Fla., was robbed of $200 in money and a draft for $6,469 by pickpockets in Louisville. The draft was found a short time later in the rear of a Market street saloon.
